SPOTLIGHT ON THE CLASS OF 2007...

Yesterday our seniors were finally able to get away on their "Senior Sneak." It is a CPCS tradition to take the seniors out to play for a day and they wait anxiously for it all year! Yesterday a limo picked them up and took them to Starbucks for breakfast. After that, they spent the day at Family Fun Center in Renton where they played, ate and had a great time. Special thanks to Shellie Miljour for planning the events and to Amy's Limo Service for donating the ride.

After four years of hard work, the seniors have fulfilled their graduation requirements and are headed for college, internships and work. Our seniors this year have been accepted to Northwest University, Barton College, Eastern Washington University, Seattle Pacific University, & Santa Barbara City College.

With graduation approaching in less than a week, our seniors are getting excited. Their moms are planning the graduation reception and Mrs. Lackey and Mrs. Casterline are finalizing the commencement service. We look forward to a large crowd on Friday, June 8th as we celebrate together the accomplishments and future plans of the Class of 2007.

Athletics

Our four track athletes did fantastic at State last weekend. Annelise Buck placed 4th in State in Javelin and Johnathan Davis placed 6th in State in Discus. Michan Harper placed 8th in State in hurdles as did Kayla Gilmartin in Discus. Great job athletes! We look forward to next year's track season and the many returning athletes. The Spring Athletic Awards Night is this Monday, June 4th at 6:30 pm in the Chapel. HS starts at 6:30 and MS starts at 7:00. This is a great time to look back at the season, award athletes with ribbons and certificates, look at photos and fellowship!

Looking ahead:

ASB officers have been elected for next year. Our senior advisor has already met with next year's senior parents to discuss graduation, events and fundraisers for 2007-2008. Our elementary teachers have planned their field trips and events and the secondary staff and committee chairs have planned their events and fundraisers. We're looking forward to a great year.
