A look inside the classrooms...

Miss Holmes first grade class appreciates all of the beautifully painted student desks. Thanks to parent Robert Allen! The class has also enjoyed several special science experiments led by parent Scott Garat. Last week the students had so much fun watching the effects of mixing dry ice and water, demonstrating the concept of carbon dioxide.

Mrs. Sauers', Mrs. Fine's, and Mrs. Henningsgaard's classes had a great time attending The Neverending Story at the Seattle Children's Theater last week.

Mrs. Milfs' kindergarten class celebrated filling their Marble Jar (filled by displaying fruits of the spirit) by having a party based on Ukraine. They read a folktale called "The Mitten" and learned about the culture and geography of Ukraine.
